Bold Strokes

Although veteran L.A. designer Adriana Caras is best known for shoes and handbags, her jump to swimwear with the new Italian-made line LeSwim is far from unexpected.

"I'm a California native, but also a second-generation Greek-American, so it's no surprise I have an inherent connection with the water," she says. Also new this summer: six Italian-made but très-Grecian leather sandal styles. leswim.it.
